

JANE WOODFORD

Jane represents FOIEF in Wales and the West of England.

She is a former teacher and educational project manager.

Jane has visited Israel on numerous occasions and volunteered on a programme, undertaking practical support tasks in Tel Aviv, Jerusalem and Bethlehem. During this time Jane lived in Jewish and Arab communities – an experience which provided valuable insights, which inform her role as an FOIEF presenter.

A former Music and R.E. co-ordinator, Jane enjoys the challenge of engaging young people in complex issues through interactive and arts-based approaches.

Jane has recently written a play/musical 'The Visit' which had its first performance in 2012. It will soon be available as a DVD for grass-roots educational programmes for Churches and School children.
